

Privacy Policy

The privacy policy below governs your membership account and any information you provide on this site. Stone Temple takes the privacy of our patrons very seriously and will use your information only in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy. We will not sell or rent your personally identifiable information or a list of our members to third parties.

Because of the way that World Wide Web communication standards work, when you arrive at or leave the Stone Temple's Web site, we automatically receive the Web address of the site that you came from or are going to. We also collect information on which pages of our Web site you visit while you are on the Stone Temple's site, the type of browser you use and the times you access our Web site. We use this information only to try to understand our customers' preferences better and to manage the load on our servers, so as to improve our service and your experience with us. We do not track the Web sites that you visit before or after you leave the Stone Temple's site.

From time to time, we may offer optional questionnaires and surveys to our users for such purposes as collecting demographic information or assessing users' interests and needs.

Membership registration is required to access certain pages on the Stone Temple web site. It is understood that by completing the registration process and providing the information requested in the required fields, you are granting the Stone Temple permission to notify you of upcoming events or special promotions related only to the Stone Temple Nightclub. Our notifications will never exceed one notification per 7 day period, nor will your email addresses be sold or otherwise provided to a third party without your express consent. You have the option of removing yourself from our database of recipients at any time.
